

S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.657/2007.
(Dinesh Chandra Vs. State of Raj. and Ors.)

DATE OF ORDER : 06.02.2007.

HON'BLE MR. GOVIND MATHUR, J.

Mr. Chaitanya Gahlot, for the petitioner

The petitioner faced selection proceedings for the purpose of appointment as Constable in Rajasthan Police. According to him, he qualified the written test and also the physical test, but nothing is heard subsequent thereto with regard to his selection.

It is apprehend by the petitioner that the appointment was not accorded to him as he suffered the conviction and that stood affirmed by the appellate court on 22.5.2006 with a modification that the conviction shall not effect the service opportunities of the petitioner adversely. The petitioner before approaching this Hon'ble Court has not submitted any representation / notice for demand of justice to the respondents that is mandatory requirement of seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

Accordingly, the petition for writ is dismissed. It is open for the petitioner to give a representation / notice for demand of justice to the respondents and after that if any grievance remains he may approach this Court for redressal of his grievance.

(GOVIND MATHUR)J.